

CHURCH COVENANT

Revised on June 17, 2012

Having been led by the Holy Spirit of God to receive Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, and on profession of faith, and accepting the Holy Scriptures as rule of our faith and life, and recognizing the privilege and duty of uniting ourselves for Christian fellowship, the enjoyment of His Kingdom in this world; we do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant and agree to associate ourselves as members of the body of Christ.

We promise, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to forsake the ways of sin and walk together in Christian love and in paths of righteousness.

We further promise to watch over one another in brotherly love (1 Peter 1:22); to remember one another in prayer (James 5:16); to cultivate Christian empathy in feeling and courtesy in speech (Ephesians 2:15); to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it in due time.

We promise also that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of the covenant and the principles of God's Word.
